

MELJAC's website is reborn

MELJAC, the leader in high-end electrical wiring accessories, announces the rebirth of its website, a reflection of the brand's skill, entirely rethought to make it easy to use for searchers.

Changing its design, navigation and the organisation of its contents...this elegant shop window presents the collections with all the many ways to personalise them or have bespoke creations.

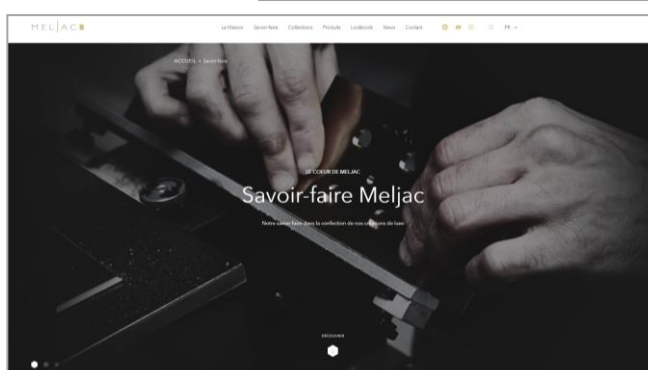

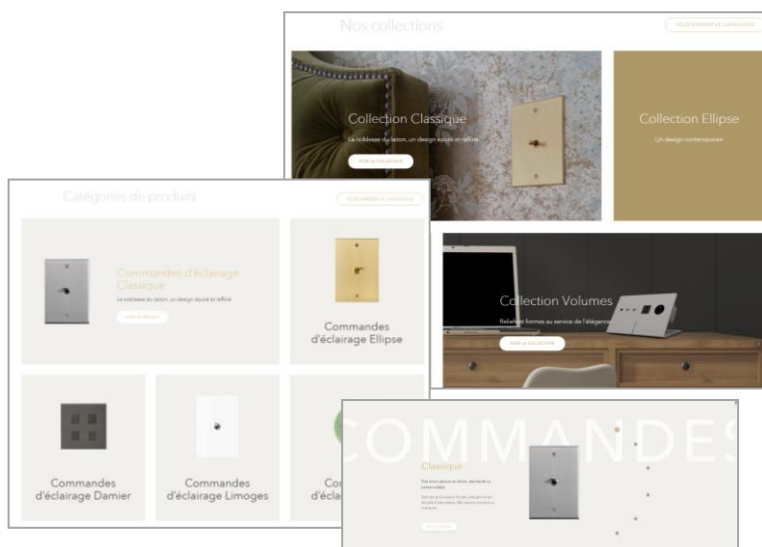

Click to explore

Navigation that's simple, functional and intuitive

Visitors can access products by function or collections, unveiling their world their way. Each, very visual, product sheet, shows the main options and the possible combinations of format and finish over 2 arcs.

All our documents (catalogue, price guide, colour charts...) can be downloaded from the technical area, accessed from the bottom of each page of the site

There is now a lookbook in the menu to guide and inspire users. They can also explore the brand's story and see behind the scenes of its 100% Made in France manufacture in the "Meljac House" and "Savoir Faire" tabs.

About MELJAC

Created in 1995 by André Bousquet, the company designs high-quality electrical equipment using the finest materials. Its innovation and working methods are at the heart of its development, guaranteeing an optimum quality which has allowed it to export its products and become the market leader. The brand is sold in 60 countries, and has 40 authorized dealers in France and 23 abroad.

With about 10 collections, MELJAC offers architects, decorators, electricians and private individuals a large range of options: switches, sockets, table lamps, reading lights, thermostats, home automation systems etc. The brand is also renowned for its made-to-measure creations.

MELJAC has fitted prestigious establishments such as the Palace of Versailles, the Louvre Museum, the Horta Museum in Brussels, and a number of well-known palaces and hotels including the Four Seasons Hotel George V, the Meurice, the Royal Monceau, the Royal Mansour and the Mandarin Oriental in Marrakech, the Intercontinental in Geneva, and the Danieli Hotel in Venice.
